DICTATED BY

Dear Miss Hartzell:

I was very sorry to learn you had been ill, but now hope you are well again. The people of the North know little of the hardships endured both by the soldiers and the nurses who cared for them.

Both Jennie & I hope to see you when you return North & neither of us have forgotten your kindness when in Bay City.

It is after banking hours today & I expect to leave Bay City tomorrow & in consequence I send you a check instead of a draft. You can probably use it at your hotel. Pardon the long delay in sending it to you. I want you to call upon me if I can be of any assistance to you, which I would be very glad to give.

Yours Wm. L. Clements

for eleven dollars ($11.00). which is all I will have you. but since old Mr. Beattie
for one annuity left you [illegible] in his will [illegible] and have paid [illegible] I will leave it to you, I will leave it to the account.
Is there any thing you
would like to have or could send to me now
please [illegible] one pound, it would be a pleasure to us something for your comfort.
Giles was drowned
I was to call Mr Rich
later.
Dr. L. T. seemed to think your work
would [illegible] hard
and a Southern [illegible] would be beneficial, and I love thoughts of you
in Summer clothes
wearing handsome
hair "Rough Rider"

and there until a few hours after you received said check pending for your answer. and now as you have not heard from me I feel that you will look after the care of yourself you should, you will be disappointed to get back home when you are strong do write me a long letter telling me all about yourself your family and your work and if there is time and [illegible] I am for I am, and shall be disappointed

Yours Lovingly
Jessie M. G. Edwards

Enclosed find check

prick of writing
to your cousin and
asking for your address. I have thought of you so much of
late and how and I hope you are
and today - Sunday -
and did and so forth
one - a dozen times
different little incidents of our sojourn together on Second
A. came into my mind. but I have learned how quite
what I will write
you later when I
learn where you are
I hope I receive
one of my rambling
epistles.
I was East this Fall
and came home

by way of Pittsburgh & Jefferson, and Dr.
L. H. almost as soon as I got in town. as I got off one car,
I could hire, I ran
over another, the
Dr. told me you were
at Jacksonville. I was disappointed
for I had counted
upon seeing you
and had telephoned
the Hospital. But this

My Dear Miss Hartzell:

Remember
that you told me
you had birthday
gift, I have ever lately to forget such trifles
put, unsatisfied attention tion as I received
at your dear hands
I was just on the
